Our Speaker: From Compassion Planet --Helping Young People in Need

Hear Scott Flanagan, Executive Director of South Placer's Compassion Planet, describe their program to assist the area's aged-out foster youth by providing training programs and mentors. The 18+ year olds have their special needs addressed: hunger, clothing, housing, education, and employment. Mr. Flanagan will describe The Deer Creek Farm and Thrift Store that help provide funding for this unique program.

How you can help: Donations of Unwrapped Gift Cards in implements of no more than $10...possibly going together to get cards for the following places: Walmart, Safeway, or The Dollar Store. Or bring some homemade cookies or candy, something these youngsters have missed in their foster care lives.

It's a Catered Lunch with dessert. Wine & non-alcoholic drinks served.

Please submit coupon below with a $15 check payable to AAUW

Women of Distinction
Gala Luncheon

SAVE THE DATE!

February 18, 2016
Whitney Oaks Golf Club
Rocklin

To benefit Education for Women and Girls

President's Message By Sanchia Spandow

We heard you...

The Women of Distinction event is changing direction. For some time we have heard that getting to a Sacramento venue for an evening event during a dark winter evening places an undue hardship on many members. We have changed the venue. The event will now be held at the Whitney Oaks Golf Club, Rocklin, on February 18, 2016. The Women of Distinction will now be a gala luncheon. The price of a ticket has changed. It will now cost $50.00 per person. This will not be a 'ladies-only type of lunch' but a first-class event that everyone can enjoy to honor excellence in the community.

What has not changed...?

The raffle. It will be held on February 18, 2016 at the luncheon—only the place of the drawing has changed. Please continue to sell or buy raffle tickets. There are seven (7) wonderful prizes.

The honorees. Our goal is to celebrate outstanding women who have excelled in business and have made significant contributions to their communities within South Placer County.

We heard you, we paid attention, and we've take appropriate action. I hope we can count on you to support the new Women of Distinction event.

We will provide additional information regarding how to purchase tickets very soon.

"Progress is impossible without change, and those who cannot change their minds cannot change anything." George Bernard Shaw

It is the responsibility of the interest group chair to communicate this policy to non-member guests. Motion passed.

“Ask Your Question” & “Kudos To”

??? Ask your question! ???

What would you like to know about the branch-- its functions, its policies or practices? If you have a serious question you have pondered and that can be answered by one of the branch leaders, send it to Susan Hall. We will print the question and answer in subsequent copies of Branch Lines. We hope this new feature will help keep members better informed.
Your Communications Team

Let's Say:

“Kudos To” ~ A branch feature ~

Do you know someone who has gone above and beyond to help the branch—perhaps someone who has missed being recognized? Send your recommendation with examples to Communications Director, Susan Hall.

Kudos to: Jackie Lamb

for booking the beautiful Whitney Oaks Golf and Country Club for the Women of Distinction Luncheon to be held on February 18th. Thank you, Jackie!

KUDOS TO MEMBERS OF THE ROCKLIN NEIGHBORHOOD GROUP:

8 large grocery bags of food were collected by Rocklin Neighborhood Group members and delivered to the Sierra College Food Closet November 16th. The food closet serves students in need, who many times have no funding during the 6 week break between semesters. Since it was Veterans Day on Nov 11th, it might interest you to know that there are about 700 veterans attending Sierra College, who can also use the food closet.

Help Our Branch! Buy Through Amazon Smile

Many members order from Amazon, especially during the holiday. Now there is an easy way to buy your usual items and let Amazon give back to non-profit charitable funds. When you are ready to place an Amazon order: Find the "Select a charity" space and type in "AAUW Roseville South Placer". Then click the select button. Now you are on Amazon Smile. You have just entered Amazon through a different portal. Shop and place your order in the usual way, and Amazon takes care of the rest, giving back one-half a percent to our branch--not a lot, but every few dollars help, and you have no extra charges. You already have your credit card and personal information on file and secured with them, so you are not exposing any information to a third party. If you're an Amazon Prime user, the process works the same way. If you are not already an Amazon user, but would like to be, you will be asked to set up an account. Amazon walks you through the process. If you are a regular Amazon buyer, you already know the procedures.

Thank you!

Public Policy Updates By Mary Kay Melton

When States Fail at Political Equity, Women Students Step Up (Nov. 3, 2015)

This post was written by AAUW Elect Her Intern Regina Monge.

Election season is officially here, and if you're anything like us, you've been reading a lot about Carly Fiorina and Hillary Clinton. Will one of them break the ultimate glass ceiling and win the presidency? Sadly, even if that does happen, women will still have a long way to go toward being equally represented at all levels of government.

Women make up just 19 percent of the 114th Congress, and only five of those women hold leadership or committee chair roles.

To change this, more women need to start running for office, and they need to start running earlier to build more influence over the course of their careers.

Elect Her

That is why AAUW and Running Start are bringing Elect Her workshops to 50 campuses in 2016. These workshops encourage and prepare college women to run for student government, giving them a head start into public office. After all, 56 percent of congresswomen got their start in student government!

We will be training college women in 29 states plus the District of Columbia and Jamaica. This geographic range is crucial, considering three states have never sent a woman to the U.S. House or the U.S. Senate. Delaware, Mississippi, and Vermont, we're looking at you.

Luckily, Elect Her will be inspiring future Mississippi leaders at the Mississippi University for Women this year. It will be the first Elect Her workshop held in the state.

South Carolina isn't doing so hot when it comes to women in politics, either. In fact, it is ranked 47th in the country for percentage of women in the state legislature. I mean, really?

Students at the College of Charleston aren't going to accept this inequality. They are bringing Elect Her to their campus to train the next South Carolina state representatives!

Did you know that Maine is the only state never to elect a woman to statewide executive office? The state's only such office is governor, and, shockingly, the state has never elected a woman to that seat.

But the Elect Her team at the University of Maine is building a network of Elect Her alumnae who are ready to lead in the state. The university hosts students from across the state at their Elect Her workshop. We have no doubt in our minds that they've got this handled!

Elect Her prepares college women to run and win in both student government and local elections. Watch out for the women at our 2015-16 Elect Her campuses, who will change the face of politics from their campus communities to their country as a whole.

Hats Off to AAUW Funds for Helping Women Reach their Goals By Carol Mintz

The AAUW northern California 2015, luncheon was held on October 25th in Danville CA. I was fortunate to attend the gathering and so impressed by meeting and listening to a few of the women who have been awarded Fellowships and Grants.

During the year, 2015-16 there are over 25 AAUW Fund Fellowship and Grant recipients studying in colleges and universities or doing projects in our communities. These women are studying a wide range of topics such as:

- ...Hispanic Languages and Literature
- ...Agronomy
- ...Ecology and Evolutionary Biology
- ...English Literature
- ...Electrical Engineering
- ...Chemistry
- ...History
- ...Applied Mathematics
- ...Literature and Philosophy

In addition several career development grants have been awarded to students in the areas of:

- ...Graphic Design
- ...Nursing Anesthesia
- ...Civil Engineering
- ...Higher Education

Many of these students spoke about how grateful they were to receive the financial support and related how it had enriched their lives and their professions.

Because of the contribution of members, national AAUW was able to award $3.7 million dollars to 241 Fellowship and Grant recipients in our country.

Members and branches in California contributed $509,701.08 to the various programs under AAUW Funds.

Thank you for your support and your continued financial support of women and girls.

SIERRA COLLEGE LEADERSHIP NEWS

By Lynda Braun, Outreach VP

- Lynda Braun hosted an AAUW-RSP table on October 20th during Social Justice Days, signing up 9 more students for the free student e-affiliate membership. The table focused on the gender pay gap and contacting national representatives for action on Paycheck Fairness bills S.862 and HR1619.

- Non-Traditional Employment for Women (NEW) Event Held at Sierra College November 6, 2015

Lynda Braun, Kate Scott, Linda West, and Sandra Barnikel represented AAUW-RSP at the Non-traditional Employment for Women (NEW) event at Sierra College on November 6th, 9 AM – 2PM. All four spoke about their careers and answered questions at several tables while the girls ate their lunches. Over 100 local high school girls attended.

The keynote speaker was Gina Lujan, founder and CEO of Hacker Lab (now in Rocklin!), and 3 other women in non-traditional careers. Kate Scott and Lynda Braun also toured the 8 hands-on labs offered to the girls.

Some examples of the labs: they soldered metal butterfly sculptures; made small, heart-shaped plastic gift boxes using a 3-D printer; took photos & used computer programs to make ads for posting on a website; and made keychain flashlights in the mechatronics lab.

Interest Group Alert

For many years the branch has had an understood policy that interest groups are for the benefit of our paying members and that prospective members may attend as guests twice as a way of getting to meet some members and get to know more about AAUW and the branch.

The policy is now written into our Policies and Procedures:

"Non-members are welcome to attend interest group meetings two times, after which they will be asked to join the branch and pay new member dues before further attendance at any interest group. It is the responsibility of the interest group chair to communicate this policy to a non-member."

To become a member, contact Patricia Lane (Contact information in Branch Handbook).
